

Dr. Leena Jain, Geriatrician

Dr. Leena Jain grew up in Chandigarh, India. She obtained a Bachelor of Medicine, Bachelor of Surgery from Lady Hardinge Medical College, in Delhi. She then went on to complete her M.D. in Ophthalmology from Rajendra Hospital, Patiala. After moving to North America Dr. Jain completed another MD in Internal Medicine in Chicago, USA. Following her MD in Internal Medicine, she completed a Geriatrics fellowship at Loyola University, in Chicago, USA. Dr. Jain moved to Canada around 20 years ago and since then has been practicing as an Internal Medicine specialist and Geriatrician in the Fraser Health Region. Dr. Jain also holds the Fellowship of Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada, as well as of the American College of Physicians and Surgeons.

Session: Dementia and Aging

Objectives:

1. Difference between normal aging and dementia
2. Dementia as a risk factor for frailty
3. Understanding dementia

Date: Sunday, March 2, 2025